Service tax is not leviable on the recoveries for Liquidated Damages

The Principal Bench of Hon'ble CESTAT at New Delhi, on 22.12.2020, has allowed the Appeal (ST-50567/2019) filed by Commissioner for South Eastern Coalfields Ltd. by setting aside the Service Tax demand of Rs. 32.76 Crores approx., plus equal penalty and applicable interest, on the amount of Liquidated Damages / Forfeiture of EMD / Penalty recovered from the various contractors & suppliers / Coal buyers under FSA and coal e-Auction scheme. The said demand was raised by invoking the provisions contained in Section 66E(e) as 'Declared Service' which reads as "agreeing to an obligation or to refrain from an act or to tolerate an act or a situation or an act".

A very detailed order has been passed by the Hon'ble CESTAT in this case considering the scenario where the parties levy various charges for breaching the terms of the commercial contracts. Ratio of the various decisions of Supreme Court of India as well as European Court of Justice have also been considered.

GST input tax credit to manufacturer on certain promotional materials provided to franchisees, distributors and retailers -AAR

Facts:

Applicant had transferred goods to franchisees, distributors and retailers free of cost to promote its brand and market its products at point of purchase. The issues involved were whether the materials used for marketing and promotion of brand can be considered as inputs and tax paid on procurement can be availed as input tax credit.

Held:

- AAR observed that such goods can be divided into two categories, non-distributable goods and distributable goods.
- Non-distributable goods like hoardings, where the ownership is retained by the applicant, are capitalized in the books of account and are not a direct cost to the products sold. Thus, they qualify as capital goods and not as inputs under GST. ITC can be claimed in respect of such goods. In case they are subsequently destroyed or written off, ITC has to be reversed.
- Distributable goods (where the ownership is transferred) such as carry bags, gifts, etc. when provided to franchisee without consideration shall be treated as supply since it is a related party transaction. While ITC can be claimed, the applicant needs to pay tax on the outward supply.
- Distributable materials provided free of cost to distributors and retailers does not qualify as supply under GST and will be treated as "gift". Thus, ITC cannot be claimed due to the restriction provided in Section 17(5) of CGST Act.
- The cost of promotional items supplied free of cost to either franchisees or other retailers is factored in the cost of the overall business on which GST is paid by the businesses. Hence, ideally no GST should be applicable on such free supplies whereas ITC on procurement should be available.

RCM is not applicable on salary reimbursed to secondment employee

The assessee, a 100% EOU is engaged in research and development services of advanced pharmaceutical ingredients and other biopharma products and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Nektar USA. During the year 2006, an employee of parent company, Nektar USA, was sent to India on a secondment to work as a full time Managing Director of Indian company, i.e., the assessee. Since the 'secondee' was a citizen of America, the parent company and the assessee entered into a 'salary reimbursement agreement' for sake of administrative convenience so that the salary of the 'secondee' would be paid in foreign currency outside India by parent company which would be reimbursed by assessee to its parent entity. Whether the reimbursement of salary paid to the 'secondee', to the parent company amounted consideration for provision of manpower recruitment and supply agency services within the meaning of section 65(68) of FA, 1994. The Supreme Court has in the case of M/s Nissin Brake India Pvt Ltd 2018-TIOL-1976-CESTAT-DEL dealt with similar issue. This view has been reiterated by the Chennai Bench of Tribunal in case of M/s Komatsu India Pvt. Ltd. and Bangalore Bench of Tribunal in M/s Goldman Sachs Services Pvt. The revenue is not disputing that the 'secondee' is always under the control and supervision of assessee and that the assessee's parent company had absolutely no obligation to pay the salary and other charges to the 'secondee' but for remitting secondee's salary in foreign exchange based on the salary reimbursement agreement. The impugned order cannot sustain and the same is set aside and decided that RCM is not applicable on salary reimbursed.

In case of violation of multiple rules, imposition of redemption Fine in addition to the penalty already imposed is in order.

The appellant has imported Canadian Green Peas. DGFT vide Notfn 37/2015-2020 notified that the impugned goods can be imported only at a Minimum Price of Rs.200/ CIF per kilogram of an annual quota of 1.5 lakh MT and only at Kolkata Sea Port. The Commissioner confiscated the imported goods absolutely and imposed penalty on appellants. The appellant is an actual user and had been importing green peas regularly. In respect of impugned import also they have applied to DGFT for permission.Their application was not rejected and no order was passed on said application. It is quite possible to accept the contentions of appellants that they had a genuine expectation that their application would be considered in course of time and the permission would come forth about the time of import. At about the same time, different importers have imported green peas in violation of restrictions imposed by DGFT vide said Notification. In case of imports by M/s. Harihar Collections, Commissioner has allowed the imported green peas to be redeemed on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation. The appeal filed by department in this regard was dismissed by Bombay High Court 2020-TIOL-1763-HC-MUM-CUS. It would be travesty of justice to treat importers with similar violations in a dissimilar manner. Importers at Mumbai and importers at Cochin cannot be treated differently. Therefore, the impugned goods can be allowed to be redeemed on payment of fine in lieu of confiscation and penalty. However, considering that the appellant is a regular importer; is aware of the law and procedures regarding imports; has violated more than one condition of import, interest of justice will be met if a deterrent redemption fine is imposed, in addition to the penalty already imposed by Commissioner.

Applicability of Rule 6(3)(i) in case of payment of Credit attributed to Exempted services

The issue arises for consideration is, whether assessee is required to pay 5%/6% of exempted services provided by them in terms of Rule 6(3)(i) when the assessee paid the actual credit attributed to exempted services in terms of Rule 6(3A) along with interest . The assessee did not maintain separate accounts for input services used in or in relation to provision of taxable service as well as exempt service. Therefore, two options were available to them, i.e., either to pay 6% of value of exempted service or pay an amount equal to the credit attributable to the input services used in or in relation to exempt services subject to the provisions of Sub-rule (3A). When the mistake was pointed, assessee reversed the proportionate common credit taken on input services used in provision of exempted services. Therefore, Rule 6(3)(i) will not have any application, when a credit is taken wrongly and the same is reversed as it tantamount to non-availment of the credit. In view of the decision in case of M/s MERCEDES BENZ INDIA (P) LIMITED 2015-TIOL-1550-CESTAT-MUM , the impugned order cannot be sustained and the same is set aside: CESTAT

Reversal of Input credit under Rule 6(3) of CCR, 2004

Issue is with respect to whether the assessee is liable to reverse the amount demanded under Rule 6(3) of CCR, 2004 on certain activities carried out by it on imported China pipes and cleared after making payment of excise duty by treating the said process as not amounting to manufacture and thus treating the same as trading of goods. The issue is no longer untouched matter after the judgment of Tribunal in case of Suyash Auto Press Componenets and Assemblies Pvt Ltd 2018-TIOL-1424-CESTAT-MUM. There is no dispute that the goods were cleared after payment of excise duty and thus once the duty has been paid on such goods and accepted by the department, the same cannot be treated as a trading activity to trigger the mischieve under Rule 6(3) of CCR, 2004. Further, it is also on record that assessee's activities were known to the department since inception as earlier also a SCN was served on assessee for recovery of Cenvat credit availed on imported china pipes which were cleared after payment of duty. Thus, the current proceedings are on the same foot. By treating the activities of assessee as trading of goods cannot be sustained by invoking extended period of limitation as the department was very well in knowledge of the entire proceedings since inception. Thus, the demand cannot sustain on limitation ground as well: CESTAT

The Department should not reject application for Condonation of Delay without checking the cause for Delay

Facts:

Appellant received the order on 12.02.2016 (imposing penalty of Rs.36,00,000/-) and filed an appeal before the Tribunal after depositing an amount of Rs.2,00,000/- as pre-deposit along with the application for condonation of delay on 05.08.2017. The Tribunal, by an order dated 06.12.2017 rejected the application of the appellant on the ground that the same is barred by limitation and no sufficient cause for condonation of delay of 455 days in filing the appeal is made out. Aggrieved, the assessee has filed the present appeal before the High Court

Held:

In the application for condonation of delay, the appellant had stated that on account of the financial difficulty, he could not arrange the amount and the delay had caused. Taking into consideration that the expression 'sufficient cause' should receive liberal consideration so as to advance the cause of justice, the substantial question of law framed in this appeal is answered in favour of the assessee and against the revenue. CESTAT order dated 06.12.2017 is hereby quashed and the matter is remitted to the Tribunal for decision on merits after affording an opportunity to the parties.

GST applicability on services given as per the contract received based on Bid floated by Municipal Corporations

Facts:

Applicant is engaged in supply services of Waste Management, Mechanised road sweeping, business support staffing and other services related to Integrated Facility Management. They seek a ruling on the following questions viz. what is the classification for supply of services by the applicant relating to waste collection, segregation, treatment, transportation and disposal services under the service agreements entered with both concessionaires in terms of 11/2017-CTR and whether the said supply is exempted in terms of Entry no.3 of notification 12/2017-CTR.

Held:

Supply of the impugned services is classifiable under SAC 9994 in terms of 11/2017-CTR. Such services are not exempted from GST in terms of entry no. 3 of 12/2017-CTR. Since it is clear that only the services provided to Central government, State government or union territory or local authority or a governmental authority will be exempted which is not the case in hand as the services are provided by the applicant to the concessionaires in terms of the service agreement entered with the applicant. Inasmuch as it is the applicant and their foreign partner who have promoted and incorporated two special purpose vehicles who have won the bids floated by the Chennai City Municipal Corporation for implementing the activity of Collection and Transportation of solid waste, street sweeping waste including street sweeping activities, horticulture waste and collection and storage of domestic hazardous waste. Doctrine of purposive interpretation cannot be adopted in the instant case by treating the services provided by the sub-contractor as being provided to the ultimate client and not to the main contractor.

Eligibility of Cenvat Credit on Services for repairs and renovation of factory premises, the manpower service for running health centre and disposal of hazardous waste

This appeal has been filed by assessee against impugned order wherein various input services has been denied during the period April, 2011 to March, 2014. The services in question are mainly service of repairs and renovation of factory premises, the manpower service for running health centre and disposal of hazardous waste. Admittedly, the assessee has taken Cenvat credit on repairs and maintenance of factory premises for building which is allowed as Cenvat credit in terms of definition of input service under Rule 2(l) of CCR, 2004, therefore, assessee is entitled to avail Cenvat credit on services for repair and renovation of factory premises. With regard to entitlement of Cenvat credit of manpower service for running health centre, the said issue has been dealt by Tribunal in detail in the case of M/s Rallis India Limited 2018-TIOL-3795-CESTAT-MUM. Admittedly, assessee is required to maintain health centre in terms of Factories Act, 1948, therefore, they are entitled to avail Cenvat credit on health services in question. As regards to disposal of hazardous waste, it is found that as per SCN, the total Cenvat credit of Rs. 37,23,475/- was proposed to disallow to assessee, but the Commissioner (A) hold that the assessee is entitled to avail Cenvat credit on said service but allowed Cenvat credit only to the tune of 37,17,304/-. The reasons are best known to Commissioner (A) for denial of Cenvat credit of Rs. 6,171/- for the service of disposal of hazardous waste, as the reasons have not been disclosed by Commissioner (A) in the impugned order, the act of Commissioner (A) cannot be appreciated. Therefore, assessee is entitled to avail Cenvat credit . No merit found in impugned order or in SCN itself, therefore, same is set aside.

Refund of Service Tax paid for construction of Residential complex comprises Less than 12 units

Facts:

Rejection of refund claim of Service Tax paid for construction of residential complex before 30.06.2012 on the ground that appellant failed to establish that it comprised of less than 12 residential units so as to be covered under exemption clause is assailed in this appeal.

Held:

Because of availability of 13 floors, Commissioner (Appeals) had failed to reach at a conclusion that the complex had less than 12 residential units to admit refund as the same was not taxable. However, going by the Architect certificate [Annexure 3], floor plan referred and the full occupation certificate issued by the Executive Engineer (building proposal) of the Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai dated 02.08.2013 would clearly indicate that the complex comprised of 9 residential units, taking each duplex to be counted as one unit. Therefore, the appellant is entitled to get the refund sought for. Appeal is allowed by setting aside the impugned order. Respondent-department is directed to refund Rs.45,13,475/- with applicable interest as per Section 11AA of the Central Excise Act, 1994 within 3 months of receipt of this order.

Royalty paid to Hitachi for acquiring know how/licence for manufacturing/sale is capex

Karnataka HC holds that royalty paid to Hitachi-Japan by assessee, engaged in manufacture and sale of hydraulic excavators, mechanical shovels etc., for procuring rights/ know-how to manufacture Hitachi licensed products as 'capital expenditure' for AY 2008-09.

HC rejects assessee's contention that royalty payment was revenue expenditure eligible for deduction u/s 37 being linked to a percentage of net sales and no new unit was set up with the licence/ capital asset acquired u/s 2(14).

HC holds that test of enduring benefit distinguished capital expenditure from revenue expenditure. Examines the royalty agreement and remarks that: (i) assessee was granted non-transferable licence to manufacture / assemble / sell Hitachi licensed products, (ii) products were sold under brand name of Tata Hitachi, (iii) assessee was entitled to continue sale/ manufacture of Hitachi licensed products beyond the period mentioned in the agreement i.e. 10 years.

Concludes that "the assessee has incurred an expenditure which gives him enduring therefore, the same has to be treated as capital expenditure.

The findings recorded by the tribunal in this regard are based on meticulous appreciation of evidence on record and by no stretch of imagination can said to be perverse."

Expense reimbursement on seconded employees - Not FTS, No TDS; Distinguishes Centrica

Karnataka HC upholds ITAT order, holds that payment made by assessee-company (Abbey India) during AY 2005-06 to its UK Group Co. (ANP) towards reimbursement of hotel and travelling expenses incurred on seconded employees is not FTS and thus, not liable for TDS u/s 195.

ANP entered into a secondment agreement with assessee to facilitate the outsourcing agreement between ANP and a third party service provider in India and deducted TDS on salary reimbursed exclusive of hotel and travelling expenditure.

Stating that the employees of ANP seconded to India were highly skilled technical personnel, Revenue held that the entire payment made was in the nature of FTS u/s 9(1)(vii) and also under Art. 13 of India-UK DTAA.

Observes that under the agreement, the seconded employees have to work at such place as the assessee may instruct and function under the control, direction and supervision of the assessee in accordance with the policies, rules and guidelines applicable to the employees of the assessee.

Remarks that "the assessee for all practical purposes has to be treated as employer of the seconded employees."

Opines that there is no obligation in law for deduction of tax at source on payments made for reimbursement of costs incurred by a non-resident enterprise and therefore the amount paid by the assessee was not amenable to withholding u/s 195

Holds that the expenses incurred by the seconded employees which were reimbursed by the assessee is not liable to TDS as not covered under FTS.

Distinguishes Delhi HC ruling in Centrica India and states that "In the instant case, the issue of permanent establishment is not involved.

Therefore, the aforesaid decision is not applicable to the fact situation of the case."

Notional rent not taxable u/s 22 for building let out without receiving occupancy certificate

Karnataka HC sets aside ITAT order upholding tax on notional rent of partly completed building let out to M/s Brigade Foundation without receiving occupancy certificate from authorized officer.

Assessee, a public limited company, engaged in the business of construction and sale of residential/ commercial building returned income from house property at 50% of annual letting value admitted for subsequent AY, from a building which was partly completed and let out for AY 2010-11, despite earning no income in the impugned AY.

HC notes that Revenue raised a demand on the notional rent for AY 2010-11, despite offering tax as a matter of abundant precaution, which was partly upheld by CIT(A) and ITAT.

HC acknowledges assessee's contention that under municipal byelaws, it is not permissible to occupy a building until it is issued an occupancy certificate.

Observes that – (i) assessee obtained the occupancy certificate only in AY 2011-12 and (ii) rental income from letting out the property had been admitted in AY 2011-12.

Holds that "a building legally comes into existence only on issuance of an occupancy certificate". Further holds that the action of ITAT, CIT(A) and Revenue authorities of taxing notional rent despite declaration of rent in AY 2011-12 as perverse "The findings recorded by the authorities under the Act is based on surmises and conjectures and has to be termed as perverse"

Overrules ITAT on taxability from sale of depreciable assets, allows business loss u/s 41(2)

Madras HC allows assessee's claim of 'business loss' u/s 41(2) on sale of depreciable assets at a price below WDV at the stage of winding up.

Holds that ITAT erred in upholding Revenue's contention that Sec. 41(2) is applicable only to assets of an industrial undertaking engaged in generation, or generation and distribution of power; Revenue invoked Sec. 50 and classified the loss as capital loss despite winding up of business.

HC states "since the sale of those Assets of the Block of Assets, not being immovable property of the Assessee, were sold during the regular course of business, before it was wound up during the relevant previous year, the loss occurring on such sale at a figure less than the written down value of the assets should be treated as "Business Loss" under Section 41(2)"

HC also upholds assessee's claim of deduction for expenditure incurred towards postage, stationery, courier charges, etc. Accepts assessee's plea that the expenditure was to be incurred for complying with SEBI guidelines and was recoverable from the client but could not be fully recovered.

Further, HC holds that the assessee maintains regular books of account and the auditors have verified the amount of expenditure which was accepted by the Revenue as well.

ITAT: Revenue's appeal for TDS u/s 195 on CCD interest against Coffeeday lacks aroma

Bangalore ITAT dismisses Revenue's appeal for AY 2011-12, holds that withholding u/s 195 is not required where annual interest on compulsorily convertible debentures (CCD) was neither paid to the Cypriot investor by Coffeeday Enterprises Ltd. (assessee) and nor was it claimed as an expenditure.

Rejects Revenue's contention that interest was accrued on grounds that the Cypriot investor waived the interest.

Holds that the term 'paid' in the India-Cyprus DTAA "is to be interpreted as intended to be taxed on paid basis and not on accrual basis.

Holds that “purpose of deduction of tax at source is not to collect a sum which is not a tax levied under the Act, it is to facilitate the collection of tax lawfully leviable under the Act”.

Regarding limitation u/s 201, holds that order made after expiry of seven years from the end of the relevant financial year was not made within a reasonable time.

Revenue passed Sec. 201 order against assessee for failure to deduct tax at source. CIT(A) upheld assessee's appeal that TDS liability did not lie since no interest was paid in the relevant AY, no interest was claimed as expenditure but was deferred and eventually waived by the investor under an agreement.

Share-transfer to subsidiary for corporate restructuring, absent voluntariness, not gift; Upholds capital gains tax

Madras HC reverses ITAT's ruling, holds that transfer of shares by assessee-company to its step-down subsidiary in Cayman Islands in FY 2008-09 is not a 'gift' in terms of Sec. 47(iii), upholds TPO's finding of the transfer to be an international transaction and ALP determination thereof under CUP method; Assessee (RI) transferred its entire shareholding in its subsidiary in Dubai (RG) to the newly incorporated step-down subsidiary in Cayman Islands (RC) (RM, incorporated in Mauritius being the holding company of RC and a WOS of RI); HC examines the transfer in terms of Sec. 122 of the Transfer of Property Act defining the term 'gift' and holds that the impugned transfer which was approved by the Board Resolution that clearly stated that the transfer of shares is 'with or without consideration', was without 'voluntary consent' and was not a gratuitous transfer; Also considers that RC was incorporated to accommodate an investment by a third party (IVC) in RG and that the transfer was immediately followed by a stake buyout in RC by IVC, and concludes that "The sole intention of the assessee was for corporate re-structuring...Therefore, the voluntariness in the transfer of shares stands excluded", thereby disqualifying to be a valid gift u/s. 122 of the TP Act; Further, HC considers the chain of events whereby RM & RC are incorporated just before the share-transfer and concludes that it is a colorable device and "undoubtedly a means to avoid taxation in India and the said two companies have been used as conduits to avoid income tax"; Rejects assessee's alternate argument relying on SC decision in B.C.Srinivas Shetty that even if the transaction is held to be a transfer, no capital gains can be computed u/s. 45 in absence of consideration, holds that the decision was rendered on "idealistic factual position with no allegation against the assessee, who had made dubious transaction to escape the tax net from the Indian continents".

Share-transfer to subsidiary for corporate restructuring, absent voluntariness, not gift; Upholds capital gains tax

Thereafter, HC upholds TPO's application of CUP method to determine the ALP of the shares transferred by considering the price at which the stake of 27% in RC (holding the shares of RG) was purchased by a third party investor, IVC, immediately after the share transfer by assessee; Rejects 10% risk allowance granted by the DRP on the premise that IVC was making a risk-free investment as it had a buy-back option noting that DRP did not set aside the factual findings by the TPO; Additionally, reverses ITAT's deletion of TP-adjustments on corporate and bank guarantees, holding amendment to Sec. 92B inserting the explanation, covering the guarantee transactions, to be retrospective in nature; Considers that the explanation commences with "For the removal of doubts, it is hereby clarified that -" and observes that "An Amendment made with the object of removal of doubts and to clarify, undoubtedly has to be read to be retrospective and Courts are bound to give effect to such retrospective legislation"; Also considers ITAT's ruling in case of Prolifics Corporation wherein it was held that provision of guarantee always involves risk and there is a service provided to the AE in increasing its creditworthiness in obtaining loans in the market.

Further, HC confirms TPO/DRP's ALP determination of trademark & licensee fee to its Singapore based AE (RDPL) at Nil absent genuine rationale for the payment, notes the factual matrix that assessee had been using the mark 'Redington' since 1993 and even obtained a 'Certificate of Registration' of the trademark in its name with effect from Feb 2000, while the AE was established only in 2005 and there was no documentary evidence to prove that the AE became the owner of the Trademark.

Possession of property and non-cancellation of development agreement, taxable as capital gains

Hyderabad ITAT holds that retention of possession of assessee's property and non-cancellation of development agreement by developer results in transfer u/s 2(47)(v) irrespective of actual development/ construction activity.

Assessee transferred land to developer under development agreement to construct built up area of 5000 sq.ft. Enquiries conducted by Revenue revealed that no development activities were undertaken thus, Revenue contended that transaction would be hit by Sec. 2(47)(v) and taxed the notional gains resulting from such transfer as STCG by disregarding assessee's stand that development could not take place as developer had vanished.

ITAT highlights that possession of property decides question of taxability and observes that though no development activity was undertaken as confirmed by Revenue, the development agreement was not cancelled and possession of property was not handed over to assessee.

Remits the issue back to Revenue "to decide the capital gains after verifying whether the possession is taken back by the assessee or not and the assessee cancelled the development agreement or not. In case, the possession is taken back by the assessee and there was no development, the assessee succeeds in appeal".

Bonus shares merely reallocate company's funds; Sec. 56(2)(vii) inapplicable sans 'transfer of property'

Karnataka HC affirms ITAT order, holds that provisions of Sec.56(2)(vii)(c) are not attracted to bonus shares received by assessee-individual during AY 2012-13.

Revenue had considered Fair Market value (FMV) of bonus shares received by assessee and made addition u/s 56(2)(vii)(c) applying Rule 11 UA(B).

States that the issue of bonus shares by capitalization of reserves is merely a reallocation of the companies funds and there is no inflow of fresh funds or increase in the capital employed.

HC remarks that "In substance, when a shareholder gets a bonus shares, the value of the original share held by him goes down and the market value as well as intrinsic value of two shares put together will be the same or nearly the same as per the value of original share before the issue of bonus shares."

Moreover, observes that there is no material on record to infer that the bonus shares were transferred to evade tax, which is the intention of the said provisions; Concludes that “when there is an issue of bonus shares, the money remains with the company and nothing comes to the shareholders as there is no transfer of the property and the provisions of Sec.56(2)(vii)(c) are not attracted”

Germany and Pakistan have deposited their instrument of ratification for the Multilateral Convention to Implement Tax Treaty Related Measures to Prevent Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (Multilateral Convention or MLI), which now covers almost 1700 bilateral tax treaties, thus underlining its strong commitment to prevent the abuse of tax treaties and base erosion and profit shifting (BEPS) by multinational enterprises. For Germany and Pakistan, the MLI will enter into force on 1 April 2021.

ITAT: Interest on sum borrowed to repay a loan, utilised for construction of commercial property, deductible u/s 24(b)

Bangalore ITAT allows deduction of interest u/s 24(b) on loan taken to repay another loan utilised for the construction of a commercial building.

Follows CBDT Circular No. 28 dated 20-08-1969 to hold that proviso to Sec. 24(b) only refer to 'property'.

Assessee, a developer and builder, declared income from house property after claiming deduction on interest paid on capital borrowed from Mrs. Kaveri Bai utilised to repay the loan taken from Corporation Bank in construction business.

ITAT observes that Revenue disallowed interest relying on third proviso to section 24(b) which provides that furnishing of certificate from the lender specifying details of interest and capital borrowed is required to grant deduction. ITAT acknowledges assessee's contention that the Circular permitting deduction of interest paid on loan taken to repay another loan for computing income from house property issued for erstwhile Sec. 24(1)(vi) holds good under the current provisions.

Sets aside CIT(A) order upholding disallowance made by Revenue on the premise that the Circular was not applicable as it was issued for provisions applicable before 1.4.2002; Extends applicability of the Circular to the current day provisions.

ITAT highlights that the deduction of interest is allowable irrespective of whether the property under question is residential or commercial.

Holds that “The proviso only carves out an exception to section 24(b) of the Act, in so far as it relates to property used for residential purposes and does not deal with or curtail the right of an assessee to get deduction on interest paid on loans borrowed for the purpose of constructing commercial property”.

Excludes Bulgaria, China, Denmark, Finland, Ireland, Israel, Korea, Mauritius, Netherlands, New Zealand, Russia among others in the revised list of CTA. While Germany included the USA in its provisional list of CTA at the time of signing of MLI, it has to exclude its name from the final list as the USA never signed and did not became part of the convention.
